EXCLUSIVE WEDDING VENUE

The Sandhouse Hotel, located overlooking the famous Rossnowlagh Beach, can be your exclusive Wedding venue. Imagine having panoramic views over the Atlantic Ocean as the backdrop to your big day. As we host weddings outside the busy summer period the beach can often be deserted giving you not only an exclusive location but practically a private beach!

You have the opportunity to have this award-winning hotel and its staff entirely dedicated to you and your guests if you take over all accommodation. With no other guests to cater for, you can be guaranteed our undivided attention.

The hotel has 50 tastefully decorated bedrooms – the majority overlooking Donegal Bay – plus many lounges and cosy areas with open fires for your guests to meet in and relax.

The Marine Spa has a wide range of treatments available to ensure everyone looks their best for the all important photographs; as well as a Jacuzzi and Steamroom available to all guests.

As we feel it is important for the Bride and Groom to experience for themselves the atmosphere and service at The Sandhouse Hotel we would strongly recommend when considering us as a wedding venue you come and stay for a night and dine in our Award-Winning Restaurant.

YOUR DAY - ALL DAY!

Reception:

We offer your guests complimentary Tea & Coffee on arrival which is generally served in one of the lounges at the front of the hotel. Along with this we can also provide a Champagne Reception, Hot Punch Reception or a Full Bar.

During the reception while guests are arriving and enjoying the unique Sandhouse welcome, entertainment can be provided in the form of a Harpist or a ceile band. We will cater for whatever the needs and requests of the Bride and Groom.

The guests are greeted in the lobby and will normally mingle through the Lounges many of which have open fires. Canapés, both hot & cold, can be served throughout the reception.

Dinner:

Dinner is served in the Main Restaurant – “The Seashell Restaurant”. Tables are mainly round and are set for eight or ten. They are dressed in crisp white linen with personalised menus and individual flower arrangements.

The Bride and Groom are announced as they make their way into the room and to the Top Table. Speeches can be held before or after the meal and the timing of the cutting of the cake can also be decided by the Bride and Groom.

Dinner is served at a leisurely pace with a professional, discreet service.

Dancing:

The band can set up in the Mark O’Neill Room while dinner is being served. This means that guests have the leisure of remaining at their tables until the band are ready to play when they are shown to the Mark O’Neill Room in preparation for the first dance. Table service is provided throughout the evening.

Supper:

Supper can be served in the Mark O’Neill room when the entertainment has finished. This can simply be tea and a selection of sandwiches, or a more substantial selection of finger food.
